

Older Folk Join Younger Set at Holiday Dances

Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford Give Party to Introduce Second Daughter.

Entertainments for debutantes have lost their early season characteristics of parties solely for members of the young set of society. Their elders now are sharing with them the centre of the social stage.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford gave a dinner and dance in their home, 9 East Seventy-second street, to introduce their second daughter, Miss Gertrude Mary Sanford, whose older sister, Miss Sarah J. Sanford, came out last year. The guests at the dinner included Mrs. and Mr. Schuyler Livingston Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren, Jr., and Mrs. Sheldon Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Post, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Belmont, Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Mrs. Francis G. Bishop, Mr. Rawlins L. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Post, Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Loew, Anne Burr Auchincloss, Katherine Mackay, Mrs. Stevens, Marnie Byrd, Natalie Grace Vanderbilt, Geraldine Thompson, Marion Hoffman and Muriel Vanderbilt.

For the dance there were several hundred of the older friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford as well as debutantes and young men. Bishop James Henry Darlington, of Harrisburg and Mrs. Darlington, who are passing the holidays at the Gotham, had a dinner party in the Ritz-Carlton last night for their daughter, Miss Kate Darlington, and afterward took their guests to the "Just Supper" in the Henry Miller Theatre. In the party were the Misses Adele Thompson, Isabelle Hollister, Emily Piersen, Rose Craig, Jean Douglas, Mrs. Parsons, Elizabeth Sturges, Anne Burr and Ursula Ward and Messrs. Amos Tuck French, Jr., John Nicholas Brown, Leonard Ithine-Johnson, John Potter, John Wood, Jr., Ralph Brown, Henry Hall, Darwin J. Adams, Elliott Darlington, Henry G. Brown and Charles Neeland, and Lieutenant-Commander Clarke, U. S. N.

The incidents of last night included a dance in the Gotham Hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Loughman of 312 Riverside Drive for their daughter, Miss Frances Edna Loughman.

Yesterday afternoon's entertainments included a luncheon by Mrs. William B. Franklin for Miss Isabelle Wood, a luncheon in the Colony Club, among the guests were Mrs. George Edward Wood and Misses Marion Taylor, Elizabeth Kountze, Eleanor Towne, Mary Isabel Morris, Betty Gardner, Katherine E. Morris, Cynthia Biegow, Susan B. Coppell, Ethel Hunt, Susan and Margaret Borland, Dorothy Newton Sharp, Margaret L. Edgerly, Clementine Prince, Barbara F. Hooker, Dorothy Douglas Brown, Julia Brown Finkley, Gertrude Ogden, Clara B. Workman, Betty Cushman, Edith McCullough, Margaret W. Dugmore and Mrs. Francis and Frances Goodhue.

Mrs. Roger Lewis of 320 West Seventy-eighth street gave a reception with dancing yesterday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Miss Mary Barbey Lewis. They were assisted in receiving by Misses Edith Holden, Marquitta Penniman, Eleanor Evans, Lydia Comstock, Edith Holden, Clementine Prince, Barbara F. Hooker, Dorothy Douglas Brown, Julia Brown Finkley, Gertrude Ogden, Clara B. Workman, Betty Cushman, Edith McCullough, Margaret W. Dugmore and Mrs. Francis and Frances Goodhue.

Among the playgoers.

In the audience at the Fulton Theatre last night to see "Enter Madame" were Mr. Nicholas G. Roosevelt, Mr. S. W. Moore, Mr. Roland S. Palmer and Mr. Edward S. Palm.

Among those who saw "Deburau" at the Belasco were Mrs. G. H. Fairchild and a party of six friends, Mr. W. C. Bradley and a party of eight and Miss E. J. Hanson and a party of six.

At the Greenwich Village Theatre were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitney Carter, Mr. and Mrs. William Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. S. Lane, and Miss Margaret A. Kennedy were among those who saw "Good Times" at the Hippodrome.

At the Greenwich Village to hear "The Beggar's Opera" were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley, Mr. William Rineholder, Stewart, Jr., Major Cyril P. W. Dugmore and Mrs. Walter J. Salmon.

LAST DAYS OF "An Exhibition No One Can Afford to Miss Seeing"

At The American Art Galleries

Madison Square South, New York

NOW ON FREE VIEW 9 A. M. UNTIL 6 P. M. and Continuing All Christmas Week, Including "New Year's"

To Be Sold at Unrestricted Public Sale
ON THE AFTERNOONS OF EVERY DAY
NEXT WEEK AT 2 O'CLOCK

A Grand Collection of Beautiful Antique Chinese Porcelains
And Other Oriental Art Treasures

Being the Entire Collection of the
ART HOUSE INCORPORATED

CLARENCE J. DEARDEN, MANAGER
SUCCESSOR TO THOMAS B. CLARKE

ESTABLISHED IN 1891

"Not only the most important event of this season but it will take rank among the famous occasions of the past."

"There are in it more than 1,200 objects. Not in a long time have we seen so large a mass of Oriental in which the average was so well maintained. It is an occasion for the exacting connoisseur."

"The collection is one of the finest ever dispersed in New York."

ROYAL CORTISSE, THE TRIBUNE.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE BY MR. DANA H. CARROLL, PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED, WILL BE MAILED TO APPLICANTS ON RECEIPT OF ONE DOLLAR.

The Sale Will Be Conducted by Mr. THOMAS E. KIRBY and his assistants, MR. OTTO BERNET and MR. H. H. PARKE

AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers

Madison Sq. South, Entrance 6 E. 23d Street, New York

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harkness Flagler held a reception yesterday afternoon in their home, 32 Park avenue, for Mr. Albert Coates, conductor of the London Symphony Orchestra, and Mrs. Coates. The guests included the directors and some of the subscribers of the New York Symphony Society, of which Mr. Coates has been a guest conductor. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch assisted in receiving. Mr. and Mrs. Coates will start back to England next week.

Mrs. Palmer, wife of Col. J. M. A. Palmer, U. S. A., commanding officer, Fort Jay, Governors Island, will give a New Year's day reception in her home.

Mr. Giuseppe Brambilla, conductor of the Italian Embassy; Mrs. Brambilla and Col. Marquis di Bernese, Military Attache, and Marquis di Bernese are passing a few days at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mr. Andrea Celesti di Vegliasta, second secretary of the Italian Embassy in Washington, and Mrs. Celesti di Vegliasta are guests for the holidays of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Erhart of 1055 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dixon, Jr., are at 320 Park avenue for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Henry W. de Forest of 63 East Seventy-ninth street will give a dance in the Colony Club January 21 for her daughter, Miss Julia Mary de Forest.

Mr. Alexander Van R. Barnwell started for Europe Wednesday on board the Olympic for an extended trip to England, France and Italy.

Mrs. Frank K. Sturges is seriously ill in her home, 17 East Fifty-first street. Friends who inquired yesterday were informed that her condition does not give immediate alarm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Matthieson have come from Irvington to pass a few days at the Chatham Hotel.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d will give a musicale and dance in her home next Tuesday night.

Lady Henry is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vogel, her brother-in-law and sister, at their country home in Chappaqua, N. Y. They will come to the Ritz-Carlton next week.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Richards upon the birth of a daughter, Wednesday. The child is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mott Harshorne.

Dances of to-night will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Campbell at the Colony Club and by Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Lancashire at 7 East Seventy-fifth street.

The dance which Mr. Clarence H. Mackay is giving to-night at 3 East Seventy-fifth street will be for his daughter, Miss Ellen Mackay, who is at home from school for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Reid will close their house in White Plains, N. Y., today and return to New York.

Mrs. George E. Dammun and her daughter, Miss Lydia Dammun, will go today to Philadelphia, Pa., to pass the New Year.

Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, who started for Europe on board the Olympic yesterday, will join her mother, Mr. Francis Burke Rose, in London, England, where she will pass several months.

Miss Cathleen Vanderbilt has a party of her young friends in the house of her mother, Mrs. Nelson Vanderbilt, 405 Park avenue.

Mr. Robert Graves has gone to Savannah to pass a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenville Temple Emmet will give a dinner party to-night for their debutante cousin, Miss Eleanor Emmet, and later go with their guests to the dance at the Colony Club for Miss Eliza S. Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Parish.

Mr. Campbell W. Steward will start tomorrow for Jekyll Island, where he will pass a week before going to Pasadena for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzhugh Whitehouse, who have been at the Vanderbilt, started yesterday for southern California to remain until spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Gillespie have come from their home at Morrisville, N. Y., to pass a few days at the Vanderbilt.

Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador, was entertained at luncheon yesterday by Mrs. Calderon, Mrs. G. H. de la Roche, and Mrs. G. H. de la Roche.

The Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouhche gave a dinner last night for Miss Vota Vesnich, daughter of the Prime Minister of Serbia, who is staying with them.

Acting Secretary of State and Mrs. Davis will be hosts at a reception on New Year's Day, the function replacing in a measure the usual diplomatic breakfast with the Secretary of State and his wife as hosts.

The Charge d'Affaires of Italy and Mme. Brambilla gave a luncheon yesterday for their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George von L. Meyer, Jr., who are their guests.

Major Charles E. Bridge, newly appointed Assistant Military Attache of the Italian Embassy, with Mrs. Bridge and two young daughters, are due to arrive in New York on January 2 and will come at once to Washington.

J. W. FROTHINGHAM TO WED.

A marriage license was obtained yesterday by John Whipple Frothingham of 40 West End avenue and Helen Loeb of 64 Park avenue. Mr. Frothingham is 42 years old and a cousin of Magistrate Frothingham. Miss Loeb is 35 years old and the daughter of Prof. Simon Loeb. She was born in Belgrade, Serbia. They are to be married on January 3 in the Church of the Saviour, Brooklyn.

MISS M. E. BEATTS TO WED.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Beatts of Stoneleigh Park, Westfield, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Madeleine Emily Beatts, to Mr. Charles D. Brown, Jr., also of Westfield. Mr. Brown is a member of the United States Naval Reserve forces during the war.

LIENAU—CUSHING.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Madeleine Lienau of 740 Park avenue to Mr. J. Henry Lienau of this city, which took place in the presence of a few relatives, in Grace Church, Van Vorst, Jersey City. There was a mother of sentiment in having the wedding celebrated in that church, which had been designed by the bridegroom's father, the late De Witt Lienau, whose name and address were given in the marriage ceremony was performed by Canon Henry B. Bryan, rector of the church.

Her New Year's Party on Ocean Palm Beach Colony Grows With Coming of the New Year

The Everglades Club will open the season with a luncheon New Year's Day. Among those from New York who have made reservations for tables are Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Jelke, Mrs. Frederick Black, Mrs. Norman DeL. Whitehouse, Mr. C. O. Van Vleck, Jr., Mr. H. S. Carrington, Mr. L. E. Treadwell, Mr. S. D. Dickson, Mr. J. S. Sargent, Mr. Cram and Miss Maxine Elliott.

Mr. Rodman Wanamaker, Jr., Major Barclay Warburton and Mr. T. A. Dolan of Philadelphia, Mr. George Henry Warren, Mrs. Charles Coulter, Tuxedo Park, and former Senator Henry F. Lippitt, Providence, R. I., are among those from other places who will join the colony there for a holiday luncheon.

ST. AUGUSTINE.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Dec. 30.—All the hotels here are preparing for the celebration to welcome the new year to-night, and although the supper will be "dry," more or less, there seems to be no lack of enthusiasm among the prospective celebrants. Many tables have been engaged by sojourners from New York and other large cities for the entertainment of parties of friends.

The arrivals from the North are rapidly increasing, and a large number is expected to-morrow.

Mr. Lawrence C. Haines of New York is registered at Hotel Alcazar.

MIAMI.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 30.—Mr. Alfred M. Hill of New York is occupying one of the cottages in Brickell avenue while overseeing the building of her new residence on the bay front.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards C. Meeker and their daughter, Miss Millicent Rogers, who arrived at their winter home, Sealeys, they came by automobile from Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Curtis and family are here from New York, and have taken an apartment for the season in Clyde Court.

HOT SPRINGS.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Dec. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meeker have arrived here and supper party last night in the Homestead to several of their friends. They left today for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton G. Smith arrived at their winter home, Sealeys, in Brunswick, Me., and are to remain a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dammun and her daughter, Miss Lydia Dammun, will go today to Philadelphia, Pa., to pass the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzhugh Whitehouse, who have been at the Vanderbilt, started yesterday for southern California to remain until spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Gillespie have come from their home at Morrisville, N. Y., to pass a few days at the Vanderbilt.

Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador, was entertained at luncheon yesterday by Mrs. Calderon, Mrs. G. H. de la Roche, and Mrs. G. H. de la Roche.

The Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouhche gave a dinner last night for Miss Vota Vesnich, daughter of the Prime Minister of Serbia, who is staying with them.

Acting Secretary of State and Mrs. Davis will be hosts at a reception on New Year's Day, the function replacing in a measure the usual diplomatic breakfast with the Secretary of State and his wife as hosts.

The Charge d'Affaires of Italy and Mme. Brambilla gave a luncheon yesterday for their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George von L. Meyer, Jr., who are their guests.

Major Charles E. Bridge, newly appointed Assistant Military Attache of the Italian Embassy, with Mrs. Bridge and two young daughters, are due to arrive in New York on January 2 and will come at once to Washington.

J. W. FROTHINGHAM TO WED.

A marriage license was obtained yesterday by John Whipple Frothingham of 40 West End avenue and Helen Loeb of 64 Park avenue. Mr. Frothingham is 42 years old and a cousin of Magistrate Frothingham. Miss Loeb is 35 years old and the daughter of Prof. Simon Loeb. She was born in Belgrade, Serbia. They are to be married on January 3 in the Church of the Saviour, Brooklyn.

MISS M. E. BEATTS TO WED.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Beatts of Stoneleigh Park, Westfield, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Madeleine Emily Beatts, to Mr. Charles D. Brown, Jr., also of Westfield. Mr. Brown is a member of the United States Naval Reserve forces during the war.

LIENAU—CUSHING.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Madeleine Lienau of 740 Park avenue to Mr. J. Henry Lienau of this city, which took place in the presence of a few relatives, in Grace Church, Van Vorst, Jersey City. There was a mother of sentiment in having the wedding celebrated in that church, which had been designed by the bridegroom's father, the late De Witt Lienau, whose name and address were given in the marriage ceremony was performed by Canon Henry B. Bryan, rector of the church.

MIAMI.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 30.—Mr. Alfred M. Hill of New York is occupying one of the cottages in Brickell avenue while overseeing the building of her new residence on the bay front.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards C. Meeker and their daughter, Miss Millicent Rogers, who arrived at their winter home, Sealeys, they came by automobile from Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Curtis and family are here from New York, and have taken an apartment for the season in Clyde Court.

HOT SPRINGS.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Dec. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meeker have arrived here and supper party last night in the Homestead to several of their friends. They left today for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton G. Smith arrived at their winter home, Sealeys, in Brunswick, Me., and are to remain a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dammun and her daughter, Miss Lydia Dammun, will go today to Philadelphia, Pa., to pass the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzhugh Whitehouse, who have been at the Vanderbilt, started yesterday for southern California to remain until spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Gillespie have come from their home at Morrisville, N. Y., to pass a few days at the Vanderbilt.

Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador, was entertained at luncheon yesterday by Mrs. Calderon, Mrs. G. H. de la Roche, and Mrs. G. H. de la Roche.

The Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouhche gave a dinner last night for Miss Vota Vesnich, daughter of the Prime Minister of Serbia, who is staying with them.

Acting Secretary of State and Mrs. Davis will be hosts at a reception on New Year's Day, the function replacing in a measure the usual diplomatic breakfast with the Secretary of State and his wife as hosts.

The Charge d'Affaires of Italy and Mme. Brambilla gave a luncheon yesterday for their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George von L. Meyer, Jr., who are their guests.

Major Charles E. Bridge, newly appointed Assistant Military Attache of the Italian Embassy, with Mrs. Bridge and two young daughters, are due to arrive in New York on January 2 and will come at once to Washington.

WOMAN BURGESS

She Has No Fads But Insists on a Clean Town for Young People.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 30.—"I want our town to be a clean and wholesome place for our young men and women, I want to eliminate the evils and temptations which beset the youths in the large cities. This will be my objective in everything I do while serving in the office to which I have been appointed."

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

Burgess Brownlee realizes that being the head of Washington, with its population of 20,000, supervising the Police Department, which is under her personal direction, working in conjunction with the Town Council and studying the habits and the problems of the municipality is going to be no small task. Her only previous experience in governing has been within her own home. In bringing up her five children.

The first Burgess to hold office in the town is a modern woman, but rather of the old fashioned type, whose energies have been devoted to her own home. Little did she dream that she would be the Burgess of her home town, for while the fight for suffrage was being waged she took no part in the movement.

She is the first woman Burgess to hold office in the State. Although she has been in office only a week she already has instituted some reforms and contemplates more of them, but they will not be introduced until she is convinced of their practicability, and as she declared to-day she is going to induce in her fads or fancies in governing the town.

LOST AND FOUND.

Jewelry.

LOST—One ring with two square diamonds and a sapphire in center and all surrounded by small diamonds. One ring with circular diamond surrounded by small diamonds. Both were made by J. H. Brown and no questions asked. HAYTIS, 331 Madison avenue. Phone Murray Hill 6217.

LOST—Diamond and onyx lady's pin, oval shape, about 2 inches long. Sunday noon, between 90th and Broadway and Church streets. Reward, please communicate with J. H. Brown, 331 Madison avenue. Tel. 3545 Yorkers.

LOST—Wedding anniversary, black note, 100 dollars, payable to order of J. H. Brown, 100 dollars. Found at 100th and Broadway. Reward if returned to desk, Rt. Regis Hotel, 100th and Broadway. Tel. 3545 Yorkers.

LOST—A small gold watch, Tiffany make, No. 65779. Hunter strap, with fob chain attached. Reward, please communicate with J. H. Brown, 331 Madison avenue. Tel. 3545 Yorkers.

LOST—A small gold watch, Tiffany make, No. 65779. Hunter strap, with fob chain attached. Reward, please communicate with J. H. Brown, 331 Madison avenue. Tel. 3545 Yorkers.

LOST—A small gold watch, Tiffany make, No. 65779. Hunter strap, with fob chain attached. Reward, please communicate with J. H. Brown, 331 Madison avenue. Tel. 3545 Yorkers.

LOST—A small gold watch, Tiffany make, No. 65779. Hunter strap, with fob chain attached. Reward, please communicate with J. H. Brown, 331 Madison avenue. Tel. 3545 Yorkers.

LOST—A small gold watch, Tiffany make, No. 65779. Hunter strap, with fob chain attached. Reward, please communicate with J. H. Brown, 331 Madison avenue. Tel. 3545 Yorkers.

LOST—A small gold watch,